A Note from Paul and Kay We thank you deeply for your many expressions of love and concern in the death of Paul’s sister Patricia. We are very thankful that all of those members are willing to commit the time and effort in order to serve our congregation in this important capacity, and we also express our appreciation for the past services rendered by those members who have stepped down. As a further update, the Search Committee reports that they are actively considering two new candidates for our senior minister position.
