Announcements

Condolences Our hearts go out to Matt Anderson whose grandmother passed away last Tuesday. Her funeral was on Friday in Texas. Please remember his family in your prayers.

With Gratitude As we look forward to the arrival of Ben Fike next week as our new senior minister, the Elders want to express on behalf of the congregation our overwhelming gratitude to Paul Watson for his service as interim minister for the last two years. This makes twice that Paul has come out of retirement to further serve our congregation, and he has done so with faithful dedication and grace. We appreciate so much all the ways that Paul has served us and the Lord’s work at CMR! —The Elders

Thank You It was a joy to be with you last week and to have the opportunity to share with you about the Argentina mission you have supported for many years. Thank you for your gracious hospitality, the meals, the fellowship, your encouragement and prayers. I take some precious memories back with me. May our Lord bless and keep you as you hold up your light for Jesus. Love in Christ, Jane de Galeppi

 "Joy in the Journey"

To be in the dark is to be confused and lost.
 But God is a God who bathes his creation with light, releasing us from darkness.
 And God does this through his Son,
 who is the light of the world.
