Prayer Vigil for Elders Beginning this evening through Sunday, the elders and ministers retreat in prayer and plan for our congregation, this year via Zoom. We want to lift them up and cover them in prayer for wisdom and guidance from the Holy Spirit as they are in prayer for us. Join us in this prayer vigil over the elders' retreat this weekend. Please sign up here to be in prayer during a portion or portions of their retreat. Your prayers are very much appreciated!

Outdoor Prayer Center The center will be open through the weekend then disassembled on Monday, located under the awning of the Worship Center. Members are welcome to participate in this onsite outdoor prayer center at your own convenient time. The purpose of this activity is to pray on holy ground, leave a prayer message and/or post an encouragement message on a mobile whiteboard. You can use a provided battery operated tealight, or bring an electronic candle or lantern from home to leave on the table. You can also post printed words from scripture or leave banners that are safe for the outdoors. Feel free to be creative with how you use this space while honoring its intention as a place of prayer.

Virtual Trivia Next Sunday, January 31, from 4-6pm. All are invited to play trivia with the youth group! Team up with friends and family. Zoom info will be included in next Friday's bulletin.

Condolences Our sympathy goes out to the family of former member Arnie Postlethwaite who passed away on Monday, January 18.
