Cards for Luka One of our mission partners in Russia, Luka Bolshakova, has endured many sorrows in the last few years – her mother died in June, family members have suffered from COVID, and she lost her husband. Still, she continues to lead the Neva Church choir, ministering to people through worship and song. We have an opportunity to encourage our sister, Luka, with handwritten cards and notes. Joel Petty, another of our mission partners in Russia, is visiting CMR on Sunday, October 17. He has agreed to carry and deliver cards to Luka when he returns home. Cards may be given to Paul Watson or left in the church office with Pam. Please turn in all cards on or before October 17.

Senior Saints will gather on Saturday, October 23 at 11am in the Fellowship Hall.
